Homecoming Reflections

From that first glimpse of a student "Welcome" sign through all the events of the homecoming weekend to the farewell reminder on the back of the banner erected by the seniors, "See Rock City," returning Bryanites found pleasant reminders of yesteryears and prospects of significant advances for "Alma Mater."

Those who arrived on Friday evening attended the music recital with the students and then were directed to the home of President and Mrs. Mercer for informal fellowship over a cup of spiced tea and brownies.

Saturday morning found alumni climbing the hill to Johnson's Bluff with hearty appetites for the delicious homemade sweet rolls and scrambled eggs and bacon cooked over the open fire. Clyde Simmons brought the devotional message from Psa. 23.

Back again on the campus it was time to assemble for the business session which resulted in some stimulating discussions and conclusions that should mean progress for the alumni association. President McIntosh's letter summarizes the important decisions.

As guests of Joyce (Cooper) and Albert Levensgood, seven '52ers with their families celebrated their fifth anniversary during the Saturday lunch hour. Ruth (Kuhn) Simmons was the sole representative of the 1957 grads for ten-year honors, whereas special recognition goes to Juanita Pendergrass who attended the Saturday evening dinner to recall her graduation of twenty years ago.

Allen and Shirley Jewett view one of the four attractive "Welcome" posters displayed in the entrance lobby by the students.

Age did not seem to hamper alumni performance on the football field at half time in the afternoon homecoming game with Tennessee Temple. The "oldsters" showed up the "youngsters" of Bryan by beating them to a touchdown during their intermission game. And, then the Bryan lions roared to victory against their Temple opponents—thanks to alumni cheers!

To enable Bryanites to keep abreast of developments in the life of the school, Dr. Mercer was invited to give a brief report Saturday evening. He included snatches from the recent Board of Trustees meeting and presented Dr. Nixon to tell of efforts being made in the direction of securing teacher certification. Most of the faculty members joined the alumni in the student lounge for introductions and sharing recollections of days past. Another cup of tea or coffee served by Miss Rader and Mrs. Nixon brought the day's ceremonies to a close. Of course, experiences in Marion County, Tenn., and Fred Donehoo '53 presented the need for Christian elementary teachers. Following the reading of a selection written by Emily Nicholson '51 especially for the occasion and a duet by Lyrlle Cue ('57) and Mark Davis ('56), Solon Hoyt ('43) described the plan of evangelism he used in missionary work in Argentina.

The hours seemed to pass so quickly but the memories will linger on... until next year when we hope you, too, can join us in fellowship to tread Bryan corridors and relax on a campus bench.

During his 12-day Tennessee visit, John Quimby spoke several times in the area and talked with Bryan students including two girls shown below.

Above, four Georgia schoolteachers pause for a farewell smile before returning to classrooms. Ann Ross ('57), Ila Ruth Mahr ('48), Catherine Painter ('57), and Lois Di Pietro ('56).

ALUMNI PROJECT REPORT

The report on the alumni project for 1956-57 which was completed at homecoming time in October shows a total of $1,223.50. This represents the gift which the alumni association is making this year to the Ironside Memorial Library for the purchase of new encyclopedias and other reference materials.
Dean Risser ('48), left, flew from Johnson City, with Lester Pifer ('46) in the Brethren Home Missions plane for a brief visit to Bryan this fall.

THEY WANTED TO ATTEND HOMECOMING...

Joyce (Hirschy '40) and Ed ('39) de Rosset, now in Evans City, Pa., write: "Have all along kept hoping we could come for this week end. It has not proved possible. . . Perhaps we could by late Nov. or early Dec. . . pass on a word for us... we can never forget Bryan and how God dealt with us while we were there."

George M. Trout ('34), Lexington, Ky., sends regrets: "I will not be able to attend the Homecoming and the Bible Conference this time because of Revival meetings scheduled some time ago. I shall plan to attend the next one... As you know, I was president of the first student body and the first junior class."

Virginia Sequine ('54), Knoxville, Tenn., says: "I am sorry, but I won't be able to attend this fall... the ending of a series of special meetings at our church where I have a responsibility in the musical end, too... I teach a Sunday school class... I'm teaching school at Tennessee School for the Deaf as well as taking classes at U.T."

Margaret Lowe ('41), Orlando, Fla., wishes: "...I could be there for Homecoming, but it is impossible at this time of the year... I had a nice vacation—visited friends in Woodside, N. Y... slept late...sightseeing in afternoon... tried to hear Billy Graham one night, but were among the several hundred that night who were unable to get into the Garden..."

Here's a suggestion that "the nominating committee for the Alumni officers each year should endeavor to choose more of the 'older' graduates for presentation as officer candidates... more interest would be stirred among the older students..."

Note: Have you a suggestion regarding alumni activities and procedures? Why not voice it!

Milton Murphey ('44), Pomona, California

"Sorry that we can't make it for homecoming... It doesn't look as if we will be able to make it during the year either. I am planning on attending the Hebrew Union College of Hollywood and probably won't be finished until your school is out... I am enclosing a check for the alumni project with the hopes that there might be a good library for all who need to study there."
Dorothy (Patten '55) Rice writes a note to tell us that two years ago she became Mrs. Horton Rice. Furthermore, last December 22 the Lord sent them a baby boy. At 9 months David weighed 23 pounds.

Faye Simpson ('58) and Kenneth Bean were married in Grandview, Tenn., Sept. 21. They live in Atlanta, Ga.

Leona (Wilson '42) and Paul ('43) Theobald, St. Paul, Minn.

"Since we made the news by having the largest family among the alumni, I had better send a couple snaps...this will give a little idea how they look. We enjoy life on these 10 acres, attend First Bible Evangelical Church at Newport, where Paul is adult teacher and S. S. superintendent. Also sings in choir and children in junior choir. They have Boys' Brigade and Pioneer Girls for four oldest... Coral and Danny are taking piano lessons and may begin clarinet. Douglas plays his clarinet at Y.P.'s. Coral sings solos and duets with other girls..."

Some FIRSTS in Missionary Work

Ralph ('54) and Melba (Mays '55) Maynard

"Greetings from the Coral Sea. We're on board the little Dutch freighter 'Siglidi,' heading north from Brisbane, Australia, toward New Guinea. What a thrill to be nearing the land of God's appointment for us! ... Our trip overtook just six weeks, and we had a grand voyage. The ship, the Whakatane, was over twice the size of this one, with the very best of accommodations.

"Our three weeks in Australia were most enjoyable, for we met many fine folk who know and love the Lord... we shall be working under the Australian Council... We're the FIRST two UFMers from the states to go to Dutch New Guinea.

"While in Australia we received word that a house is being built for us at the interior station of Bokondini, about 175 miles South West from Hollandia. It is of wood, grass and thatch, with none of the "musts" of civilization, but we know that we shall be very happy there, for it is His place for us."

Bessie Degefman ('53), Ishikawa-ken, Japan

"Since we are called 'strangers and pilgrims' it is not surprising that after being in Kominato only ten months I must pack up my belongings and move again... the west coast... about September 30.

"... here in Kominato... we are expecting to have our first baptismal which is a thrill indeed.

...AND LITTLE BUDLETS, TOO!

Bible Camp is in session now, too, and we are privileged to have as one of the speakers a very well-known Japanese radio pastor... Three (including Mitsukosan) for whom I've been especially praying made a stand for Christ.

"...I was very happy when I could take a Japanese Christian girl with me last Saturday to a place about thirty minutes away by bike... my being an American caused a big sensation--so it wasn't hard to get an audience for a Bible story with pictures. We passed out tracts to most of the homes... This was evidently the FIRST time for this village to be given the gospel... When will they get it again?"
"... I enjoyed a profitable session at Moody Bible Institute... The week of camp in August was most refreshing... It gave me a greater vision of a camp program, and the expansion of our camp work in Austria with an eventual permanent site is something that several of us have had in mind... I have been very pleased that a good number have contributed toward a flannelgraph lending library... My sailing date has been changed to November 14."

Grace (Coventry '52) and Carl (’56) Benedum, Oak Park, Michigan
"... We are assigned (under Missionary Internship) to a lovely Baptist Church about 500 Sunday school size. They have the most wonderful facilities... the preacher... Mr. McBeth... We are living in the home of Rev. Fred Kendal.

"We had a glorious week at Gull Lake; it was orientation week but seemed more like a deeper life conference...

"We were surprised to have Rogers ('57) and Ethel Mae (Davis '56) Havird and John Mark at Gull Lake... Verena Bender ('55) was also there.

Ethel Mae and Rogers Havird, Adrian, Mich.
"... We are now in Adrian, Michigan, working through the Missionary Internship program. Our pastor is Rev. Douglas Hine of the Calvary Bible Church."

"At a recent meeting of our workers Kermit was reelected chairman of the German Field Council. In addition to teaching duties at the Bible School this coming year he will also be Dean of the Faculty and Assistant Director...

"A small hotel, in addition to the two houses we have had this past year, has been rented for the Bible school... Most of last year's 28 students are returning... we should have at least 50..."

Gwen (Hay '45) and Albert ('44) Wyllie, Nigeria
"Gwen flew from Lagos with Gregg on 28th, Sept... have a series of tests made to record his progress on the new drugs... when he was so ill about two year ago he was paralyzed down his right side. After about 4 months of that he began to have the use of his limbs again, but has been a bit slow in developing his speech habits...

"I will be leaving Kano with Diane and John on 6th December... We plan to travel to New Orleans and spend a bit of our furlough there...

"The Lord has blessed in our school and given us a fine graduating class of 23 men. They have just completed part of their government exams and will be completing the balance in the middle of November. If they are successful they will be classed as Grade II teachers capable of being Headmasters in Senior Primary schools."

Carol (Jonger '54) Zuck, Columbus, Ohio
"Praise Him for all He has done for me. He helped me finish at Wheaton College and then at the U. of Chicago—with an M.B., but best of all He gave me a wonderful husband who loves Him, too. (Dave is a senior in Vet. Med. at O.S.U.)
